

Craig O'Hare, CPSW – Vitae

Craig retired from a career in environmental sustainability and resource management for local and state government in 2016, most recently as Santa Fe County's Sustainability Manager.

Prior to that, Craig was Governor Bill Richardson's Special Assistant for Renewable Energy in the NM Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources Department.

In the behavioral health arena, Craig is a 25-year survivor of depression and, in retirement, hopes to help others who struggle with mental illnesses and substance use disorders.

Craig is a Certified Peer Support Worker (CPSW)— a training and certification for those in recovery from mental illness and/or addictions.

He also serves on the Board of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, Santa Fe Chapter
